

School of Electronic Engineering and Computer Science

PhD Studentship in THz Metrology for Biological Sciences

Applications are invited for a PhD Studentship to undertake research in the area of Exploring protein structure and dynamics using Terahertz spectroscopy, starting September 2011. The three year studentship will cover student fees and a tax-free stipend starting at £15,590 per annum and is available to candidates of all nationalities.

Full details and application information available at: www.elec.qmul.ac.uk/antennas/index.html or email robert.donnan@eecs.qmul.ac.uk